PERMANENT AND AD HOC COMMITTEES

In accordance with article 21, paragraph 3 of the Rules of Order, at the beginning of the Parliamentary year, as well as in the first public meeting after a periodic resignation or after a dissolution of Parliament, the President assigns the members to the permanent committees for the investigation of certain subjects and to the committee for petitions, unless Parliament decides otherwise. On Thursday, March 5, 2020, members of each Permanent and Ad hoc Committee appointed the Chairman and Vice Chairman of their respective Committees.

COMMITTEE OF FINANCE

Government’s financial management, the tax authority and the tax system, and issues arising from the banking sector are inter alla topics that can be dealt with by the Committee of Finance. The Committee can request to meet with the Minister of Finance on issues for which the Minister is primarily responsible, or organizations such as the bankers association or the insurance association. The Committee can also send questions to the responsible Minister. The budget of the country is the committee’s major concern.

COMMITTEE OF KINGDOM AFFAIRS AND INTERPARLIAMENTARY RELATIONS

The Committee of Kingdom Affairs and Interparliamentary Relations deals with all topics pertaining to Kingdom Relations and international relations with other Parliaments. The Committee also advises Parliament on Kingdom Laws for which Parliament is able to report to the Kingdom Government via the Second Chamber of the Netherlands.

COMMITTEE OF TOURISM, ECONOMIC AFFAIRS, TRANSPORT AND TELECOMMUNICATION

The permanent Committee of Tourism, Economic Affairs, Transport and Telecommunication deals with topics related to the Ministry of Tourism, Economic Affairs, Transport and Telecommunication. The airport, the harbor, airlines, the viability of our tourism product, public transport, entrepreneurship, economic regulations: are all topics that the Committee can deal with and or call in the Minister or relevant organizations to give updates and information. Any issue that touches these topics can be up for discussion and investigation during these Committee meetings.

COMMITTEE OF PETITIONS

In accordance with article 24 of the Constitution everyone has the right to submit petitions in writing to the competent authority. In accordance with article 21 of the Rules of Order of Parliament the Parliament shall have a Committee for Petitions. This Committee has a task to examine written petitions submitted to the Committee in accordance with article 68 of the Constitution which states that the Parliament shall investigate petitions addressed to it.

This Committee has its own Rules and can be found on the Parliament’s website: www.sxmparliament.org
